Attractions

- 1 Narrow Water Tower House
Built in 1570, it replaced a Norman castle on the site. A century later it was bought by Francis Hall, who built the family home, Mount Hall, opposite. It is open for tours in summer.
- 2 Clonallon Church
This beautiful church is built on the site of a monastery founded by St Conall, later bishop of Coleraine, in the sixth century. His successor here was St Dallon.
- 3 Clonallon Rath
A three banked rath, dating from about 400AD, it was probably the home of an important local farmer.
- 4 The Coronation Stone
It is said that each new chief of the Magennis clan was crowned on this stone, which legend claims came here with the original inhabitants of Ireland. It is preserved in its original state.
- 5 The Docks
Built by the Hall family in the early nineteenth century to export and import goods, many ships sailed from here during the Great Famine of the 1840s. A plaque here commemorates the thousands of emigrants who passed through the port in search of a new beginning.
- 6 Windmill
Though no longer visible to visitors, the base of this 1802 windmill that once towered 20 metres into the air still remains. It was built to grind corn and wheat from local farms.
- 7 St Peters Roman Catholic Church
Built between 1830 and 1840, it was designed in the Gothic style by the famous Newry architect Thomas Duff.
- 8 Parish Church
Local landlords, the Hall family, donated the site on which the church was built in 1827.
- 9 Warrenpoint Park
Opened in 1907, the park became famous for the summer concerts at its beautiful bandstand. This was restored to its original glory as part of a £1 million restoration, largely funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund, which also created an interpretation centre at the park's Pavilion (open 7 days, 10am-4pm). There is a play area and tennis courts too.
- 10 Warrenpoint Golf Course
Established in 1893, Warrenpoint Golf Club is an 18-Hole parkland course with a restaurant and bar. 028 4175 3695 warrenpointgolf.com

RANGE OF MOUNTAINS
IN THE MOUNTAINS
OF IRELAND

Situated by Carlingford Lough at the Gateway to the Mourne Mountains, This area has been attacked by Vikings, settled by Normans and controlled by the Magennis Clan.
Discover Warrenpoint.

In the 17th century the land was bought by the Hall family, who later developed the town and harbour. By the mid-1800s Warrenpoint had become the fifth largest port in Ireland. During the Edwardian era trains were bringing crowds of visitors to enjoy its beautiful park, bandstand concerts, swimming baths and indoor skating rink. Today, this lovely town continues to welcome visitors from near and far. Famed for its entertainment offering, excellent hospitality venues and popular festivals, Warrenpoint has long been one of Ireland's favourite resort towns.
